In arguably the strangest bit of my 13 year career, it is a joy to welcome you to Brookwood Chorus' first live, in-person performance since March of 2020. The students performing tonight have endured numerous challenges during this pandemic - particularly as it relates to choral singing in various formats. Despite the challenges, these chorus students continue to create music together, and I am proud of what they continue to accomplish this school year.

Keep Singing!

- Mr. Still
